

Code of conduct

1. Client and practitioner both verify that they are at least 18 years of age
2. Client and practitioner both agree to be free from any mind altering substances and are therefore fully able to give consent.
3. Client agrees to disclose any diagnosis or condition that could effect the session
4. Client and practitioner both agree to practice consent and attention to each others boundaries at all times
5. Client and practitioner will communicate to find what is mutually comfortable before, during and after sessions.
6. This is a strictly platonic service. Both client and practitioner agree to not pursue or encourage sexual arousal. Also
 - minimum of a singlet and shorts
 - No hand to genital or breast contact, no intentional genital stimulation of any kind
 - No exchanging of saliva or any other body fluid in any way
7. Client and practitioner both agree to respectful personal hygiene (no perfume please)
8. Client confidentiality is respected at all times
9. Either client or practitioner can end the session at any time